PRIVACY STATEMENT Boot-Check, version may 2018.

General

We are aware of the trust you place in us. We see it as our responsibility to protect your Privacy. Using this Privacy Statement, we will let you know what information we collect when you use our website or services, why we collect it and how we can improve your client- & user experience.

This Privacy Statement applies to the services of Boot-Check. You should be aware that Boot-Check is not responsible for the Privacy practices of other sites and resources.

To the Privacy Statement, Boot-Check respects the Privacy of all users of its site and services. (name company) ensures that the personal information you provide is treated confidentially.

Consent

From the moment of the given assignment, the (candidate) client/principal automatically accepts/agrees with our general conditions and this Privacy Statement.

When visiting this website, you, as visitor, automatically accepts and agree to our general conditions and this Privacy Statement.

Using our services

When you sign up for any of our services, we ask you to provide personal and company related information. This data is used to perform the service(s). The data is stored on secure servers of (name company) or those of any third party. We will not combine this data with other data we have.

Information types and files

Boot-Check collects data related to the handling of assignments, such as surveys, brokerage, valuation/ appraising, harbour handling/management, transport, rentals, leasing, storage/berthing, advise & consultancy, complaint & dispute handling, all other services.

Boot-Check distinguishes two information types and files, which are:

- (1) client data intended for the (candidate) client file and
- (2) object/process/procedure data intended for the object/process/procedure file.

Boot-Check holds these information types/files on secured servers.

Client file

Boot-Check holds an individual client file of each client. This file contains:

- Details of the company or the location where the business activities are actually executed, including: location details (address, zip code, city, country, email, website, phone), company registration details, power of attorney, invoice information;
- Details of the natural person, including address, zip code, city, country, email, website, phone, birth details, marital status, power of attorney, invoice information.

Clients (can / can't) manage (online) their own profile files.. The client profile isn't public.

If the client or Boot-Check, or both, end the assignment, Boot-Check keeps the profile file for an undefined period, unless the client files a request for deletion.

Object/process/procedure file

Boot-Check holds an unique object/process/procedure file of all handled assignments.

This file contains:

All online/offline documents, such as: start/opening & closing document, agreements, settlement documents, minutes, reports, notes, letters, fax messages, email messages, correspondence, invoices, all other case related documents;

- Details of assigning parties, principals, participating persons, companies, bodies & organizations, third parties as advisors, consultants, sollicitors, lawyers, notaries, accountants, other persons, companies, bodies & organizations if involved in the process/procedure, such as:

- If company, body or organization: details of the entity including: location details (address, zip code, city, country, email, website, phone), company registration details, power of attorney, invoice information;

- If a natural person: details of the person
